31-1-2007

This is an office reference.

Shri Prashant Mishra, learned Additional Advocate General for the State.

Perused the record.

79 Tribals of Bastar surrendered themselves in presence of the Chief Minister, Home Minister and the Director General of Police at Raipur, being involved in Naxalite activities. Petitioner claiming himself to be a social activist and titling the petition as "Letter PIL Writ" alleging innocence of those 79 villagers and atrocities committed by Naxals, Police and Salva-Judum on villagers, has sent this petition by post.

This is not a petition initiated by a social action group or a public spirited individual having an interest in the cause by filing a petition. That apart, if any grievance is there it is for those 79 people and not others.

Neither the petition fulfills the requirements of Rule 62 of the High Court of Chhattisgarh Rules, 2005 nor can be defined to be a letter petition having public interest.

In the result, the petition is liable to be dismissed summarily and is accordingly dismissed in limine.
